AMINES & PLASTICIZERS LIMITED

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT POLICY

1. BACKGROUND

We at Amines & Plasticizers Limited ("APL/Company") recognize that stakeholder engagement is an integral part of our business operations. We strive to provide long-term sustainable value to our stakeholders such as investors, employees, customers, business partners and suppliers, government and communities. To this end, it is vital for us to develop an understanding of our stakeholders' needs, interests and expectations. We endeavour to achieve this through collaboration and regular interaction with all our stakeholder groups. Effective stakeholder engagement on an ongoing basis is essential for us to identify the opportunities and concerns arising from stakeholders' material issues and work towards their effective resolution.

While the process of stakeholder engagement is decentralized and respective functional teams are ultimately responsible for stakeholder engagement efforts, the Company's approach to stakeholder engagement is governed by this Stakeholder Engagement Policy ("Policy").

2. SCOPE

This Policy provides our approach for engaging with our stakeholders. It has been put in place to ensure that the stakeholder engagement is applied consistently across the operational boundary of the Company and its material subsidiaries.

Each business unit in every operating location is required to carry out stakeholder engagement in accordance with the principles of this policy, and to ensure that they maintain and commit to play a role in nurturing the Company's stakeholder relationships

3. OBJECTIVE

The objectives of this Policy are to outline:

- > the methodologies, systems and processes for identifying and engaging with stakeholders;
- > to whom the Company has, or in the future may have, legal, commercial, operational or ethical/moral responsibilities; and
- who can influence or have impact on the Company's strategic or operational decision-making;

4. DEFINITION OF STAKEHOLDER

For the purpose of this Policy, "Stakeholder" means any individual or entity that may influence a company's business activities, products, services, and decision making or that may be affected by a company's business activities. Stakeholders can include a variety of groups such as customers, officers/employees, shareholders, partners, local communities, governments, civic groups, and domestic/foreign investors.

5. STAKEHOLDER IDENTIFICATION AND PRIORITIZATION

We identify stakeholders as those individuals, groups of individuals or organizations that affect us and/or could be affected by our activities, products or services and performance. APL analyses its internal and external environment to identify its internal and external stakeholders, which may include those individuals, groups of individuals and/or organisations:

- that are directly or indirectly dependent on the Company's activities, products or services and performance, or on whom the Company is dependent in order to operate;
- to whom the Company has, or in the future may have, legal, commercial, operational or ethical/moral responsibilities; and
- who can influence or have an impact on the Company's strategic or operational decision-making;

Our Key Stakeholders include:

- Shareholders
- Employees and workers
- Customers
- Research analysts
- Suppliers
- Contractors
- > Regulators
- Communities
- ➤ NGO's
- Other (Including Contract Workers, Trainees)

Stakeholders are prioritized based on the relevance and profiled into different categories depending upon the specific context of engagement.

6. STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT PROCESS:

At APL, we promote a culture of ongoing engagement with every stakeholder group, collecting feedback. The most appropriate engagement tools and methods range from written communications, one-to-one meetings, feedbacks, information sessions, surveys etc.

We strive to abide by the following when engaging with any stakeholder:

- ➤ Before engaging with a stakeholder, define the purpose, scope and frequency of engagement by nature of the relationship that the Company has with them or aims to develop with them;
- Assign adequate resources and responsibilities for effective stakeholder engagement.
- Consider potential stakeholder engagement risks prior to selecting the level or method of engagement, and devise ways and means to address them. Potential risks may include participation fatigue, lack of stakeholder integrity, conflicts of interest, disruptive or uninformed stakeholders, and an unwillingness to engage. Proper planning and preparation are undertaken to understand the stakeholder profile and facilitate the stakeholder to have an open, credible and honest dialogue;

- Engage with NGO's who are working for disadvantaged, vulnerable and marginalized groups. Additionally, Company gives special attention and develops special initiatives in relation to stakeholders in areas that are unprivileged through CSR activities of the Company;
- > Settlement of stakeholder grievances in a fair, equitable and timely manner;
- ➤ Align our goals and actions with the stakeholders in the related areas of concern to the extent possible based on our assessment; and Communicate and report the outcome of the stakeholder engagement to internal and external stakeholder groups through various modes as appropriate, including but not limited to the annual report, CSR Report, notices on our official website etc.

7. COMMON MODES OF ENGAGEMENT WITH KEY STAKEHOLDERS
